The MS Settlement is shameful! Not only does it fail to actually hold Microsoft accountable for it's blatantly (and court-proven) anti-trust behavior, but it's weakness effectively condones the corporate bullying practices that allowed Microsoft to extend its OS monopoly to other markets in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act. That the DoJ bowed-out of the case with such a pitifully weak set of consequences has destroyed my faith in the Bush administration-led DoJ to hold corporations fully accountable under the law.

Disgusted at corporate appeasement,
